

Activities implemented within framework of the Pilot Project: “Improvement of computer usage and public Internet access ability in Vietnam

” funded by the Bill&Melinda Gates Foundation (U.S.A) from the 24th to 29th

May 2011. The PMU of the pilot project – Vietnam Public Utility Telecommunication Service Fund (VTF) coordinated with the National Library of Vietnam (NLV) and three provincial libraries in Thái Nguyên, Nghệ An and Trà Vinh successfully held the Internet Festivals (IF) in three districts and communes in the three mentioned provinces.

On the purpose to introduce and promote numerous classes of people in 3 provinces of the pilot project on using computers and Internet access services provided by the communal cultural post offices at the project sites which are equipped with computers. IF held at Tân Cầm commune, Thái Nguyên province (24th May 2011), Cù Kê district, Trà Vinh province (26th May 2011) and Thanh Lĩnh commune, Thanh Chương district, Nghệ An province (29th May 2011) as the meaningful social activities attracted attention from people, especially, youth and pupils living in communes and districts where the IF were held. According to the statistics, approximately 1,000 people attended the IF in the three provinces.

Ribbon cutting Ceremony of Internet Festival at Tân Quang Commune, Thái Nguyên Province

Ribbon cutting Ceremony of Internet Festival at Cầu Kè District, Trà Vinh Province

Figure 10. Ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Internet Festival in Nghệ An province, October 2014

Cultural Performance celebrating Internet Festival

People take part in computer skills contest with prizes

People take part in quiz game knowledge of technology.

Mr. Dang Van Uc, Vice Director of NLV awards gifts to lucky winner of casting losts game.

Mrs. Phan Thị Thu, Vice Director of Thái Nguyên Provincial library awards gifts to winner of computer skills contest.

Minh Nghi can Effi Joos, G. M. de M. de R. des Relations Internationales library awards gifts to lucky